

Improvisation – Possible Scenarios for Librarian to Begin

- The floor is lava!
- The floor is made of glue!
- Everyone has to do a silly dance
- Everybody has to freeze (or, the librarian points to each child one at a time and that child has to freeze)
- Everyone pretends they are melting
- Everyone turns into slithering snakes (or elephants...use your imagination)
- Everyone pretends they're pirates on a pirate ship
- Everyone pretends they just heard a really funny joke
- Each child is trapped in an invisible bubble
- Everyone is a tree, swaying in the breeze
